LIVE-STOCK MARKET. Native Supply Light-Beef Cattle

Steady-Hogs Close Easy. NATIVE CATTLE-Beef Steers. The steer market on Monday, in the majority of instances, showed but a steady range with the close of the week. While supply was light and buy-ers were out early the quality was lacking and outside of a load or so around $4.50, that were of decent fiesh, the remainder were of com-mon to medium grades. For this reason trad-ing on the few offerings of common to medium grades was conducted rather quietly. However, a little strength was shown on the top kinds, though they were not quotably higher. Receipts in this division were estimated at 1.500 head, which is 500 higher than inst Monday and 500 larger than the corresponding period last year.

The late advance was nided by the immers of the Southern spot markets, which reported a full response to the advances in futures and a prominent Philadelphia crot interest was reported to be a heavy buyer as well as the buil leader. Exports are running very light, and while spot markets reflect the builtshness of rentiment among holders, the demand for actual cotton does not appear to be particularly suitaffectory, and invertor holders are said, in some instances, to be hedging their supplies in the future market.

9199-MISSES COAT WITH CAPEL

12, 14 and 15 years.

The blouse closes invisibly, in double-breasted style, under a band of velvet that finishes the neck and front edges. The cape fits well on the shoulders and is quite long. The front is cut in pointed tabs on each side, with large chenille ornaments in the ends. A narrow piping of velvet edges the cape.

The skirt portion is fitted with finy darts at the belt; the fullness at the back is arranged in an underlying plattent side of the center. The skirt is attached to the lower edge of the belt. Either the skirt or cape may be omitted if so desired.

One-piece bishop sleeves fit the arm closely from shoulder to elbow. They are very wide at the lower edge, where the fullness is arranged on velvet cuffs of unique shaping. The sleeves droop well at the back.

Garments in this style may be made in velvet, corduroy, cloaking, broadcloth or cheviot, and trimmed with velvet or stitched bands of self fabric. They may be worn as separate outside garments or made of the same material as the skirt.

To make the coat for a miss of 14 years will require three yards of material, forty-four inches wide, with three-eighths of a yard of velvet. The pattern, No. 819, is cut in sizes for misses of 12, 14 and 15 years. 12, 14 and 16 years.
